

Dear Food Vendors:

It's time once again for another Apple Blossom Festival in Williamson. We have been working hard all year to get ready for this year's festival, and it should prove to be a great one. Our theme for the 2008 festival is:

"Welcome to the Jungle."

This year we were lucky enough to get the award winning South Philadelphia String Band (also known as the "Mummers") to march in our parade. This marching band is known for its outrageous costumes and great performances.

The festival runs from Thursday May 15-Sunday 18th. You will be able to arrive to set up Friday afternoon from 1:00pm-3:00pm. Please try to get to the parking lot no later than 3:00pm. Program books for the weekend's events will be given to you upon arrival.

This year it will be up to the discretion of myself and the committee as to booth placements. That being said I do not foresee any changes from last year.

If you are a new to our festival and are interested in having a booth please contact me before you send any payments. (see contact info below).

Payment is due no later than May 5, 2008 (for new vendors to the festival). I will not except any payments after that date. Insurance and NY state permits can be sent with payment or given to me upon your arrival. If you don't have them I will not be able to allow you to set up.

Please let me know booth size and menu as soon as possible.
( 10x10 booth $125, 10x20 $150, 20x20 $175)

Please send payment, permits and insurance info to:
